Continuity of Income	Income Disruption <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the employer is not open for business at the time of loan close, the loan is not eligible If documentation reflects reduced hours and/or pay, follow standard Agency guidance for decreasing income. (Declining income may not be averaged). Unemployment Compensation- Cannot be used to qualify a borrower unless it is clearly associated with seasonal employment and meets all other Agency requirements. Refer to applicable Agency selling requirements for complete details. Temporary Leave- A borrower who is furloughed or laid off is not considered to be actively employed and is therefore ineligible under the temporary leave requirements, regardless of whether there is a projected return to work date. Refer to the applicable Agency requirements for certain types of temporary leave that may be eligible for qualifying. Gap of Employment- Variable Income. A gap in employment or a reduction in income due to COVID-19 cannot be excluded from the calculation, and the year-to-date income must be continuing to be calculated over the entire time-period. Refer to applicable Agency COVID-19 FAQs for complete details.
Federal Student Loan in a COVID-19 Automatic Forbearance	Excluding from the monthly debt-to-income (DTI) ratio- The monthly student loan payments can be considered a contingent liability that can be excluded from the borrower's DTI ratio provided the following requirements are met. Refer to Agency COVID-19 FAQs for additional details. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The responsible party (not the borrower) had been making timely payments for at least 9 months prior to the automatic forbearance. The responsible party resolved the missed payments prior to closing of the new loan. The loan file includes documentation evidencing that the student loan is a federal loan in a COVID-19 related automatic forbearance and that all missed payments have been paid; and All other Agency selling requirements for contingent liabilities have been met. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> For FNMA only- Evidence of 12 total payments, either monthly or in aggregate, on the omitted debt is required.

Forbearance-Purchase and Refinance Eligibility for Borrowers with recent Forbearance	In addition to reviewing the credit report, the Seller must apply due diligence for each mortgage loan on which the borrower is obligated (including co-signed and non-subject property transactions) to determine whether the payments are current as of the Note date. A borrower who is not current on any mortgage loan must meet the applicable additional eligibility requirements below to be eligible for a new mortgage loan. Refer to Agency announcement for complete requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Borrower in forbearance with no missed payments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Eligible for new mortgage with no additional eligibility requirements • Borrower in forbearance with missed payments resolved through reinstatement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Reinstatement prior to the application date: Eligible for a new mortgage loan with no additional eligibility ○ Reinstatement after the application date: Document source of funds in accordance with Agency selling requirements. Proceeds from refinance may not be used to reinstate any mortgage loan • Borrower in forbearance with missed payment resolved through a loss mitigation solution <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The Seller must verify that the borrower has made at least three timely payments in accordance with the requirements in the Agency announcement(s)
Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No payment estimated or otherwise, need be included in the DTI at this time; however, once it is determined that any portion of the PPP loan must be repaid, follow Agency requirements for loans paid by a business. • Loan proceeds from the Small Business Administration (SBA) PPP or any other similar COVID-19 related loans or grants are not considered business assets. • An SBA PPP or any other similar COVID-19 related loans or grant is not considered a source of business revenue. Refer to applicable Agency COVID-19 FAQs for additional details. • An SBA PPP or any other similar COVID-19 related loans are designed to provide short-term relief whereas the payroll, rent/mortgage payments and utilities are ongoing business expenses; therefore, those expenses must be considered in the analysis. Refer to applicable Agency COVID-19 FAQs for additional details.
Self-Employed Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the most recent income tax returns are dated 2020 or later you may now follow standard Selling Guide policies with respect to self-employment income. • If the most recent income tax returns are dated before 2020, you must continue to apply the COVID-19 temporary guidelines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Audited YTD Profit and loss (P & L) Statement (should be prepared in accordance with FAAP and audited by an independent certified public accountant), OR ○ Unaudited YTD Profit and Loss (P & L) Statement, in addition to three (3) months business depository account statements no older than the latest three (3) months represented on the YTD P & L Statement. ○ The P & L Statement must report business revenue, expenses, and net income up to an including the most recent month preceding the loan application date. Must be no older than 60 days prior to the Note Date. (Refer to Agency announcement for complete details) ○ If the information on the unaudited YTD P & L statement and business bank statements, is not reasonably consistent with the revenue on the business account statements, then additional documentation as outlined in the Agency announcements must be obtained to support the information and resolve the discrepancy. Otherwise, the income is not eligible for use in qualifying. ○ The seller must complete a business income assessment by comparing the YTD business income from the YTD P & L Statement to historical business income calculated in accordance with the Agency announcements and Agency Selling Requirements. ○ Declining income is not considered stable and therefore not eligible for use in qualifying.
Verbal Verification of Employment and Verification of Self-Employment	Verification of Self-Employment- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Confirmation that the borrower's business is open and operating within 20 business days of the note date is required. • Evidence of current work can include executed contracts or signed invoices that indicate the business is operating on the day the lender verifies self-employment, evidence of current business receipts within 20 days of the note date (payment for services performed), business website demonstrating activity supporting current business operations, etc.
